

Recycle your unwanted mobile phone and we'll donate up to £100* to BBC Children in Need

To donate an unwanted mobile, please bring it in on _____ and deliver it to _____

or send it to FREEPOST FONEBAK, BBC CHILDREN IN NEED

For every reuseable handset, Fonebak will donate the value of the handset as shown on www.fonebak.com to BBC Children in Need. The minimum donation per handset is 10p. For full details, terms and conditions, please visit www.fonebak.com. Phones not suitable for reuse will be sent for safe recycling ensuring that nothing goes to landfill. We will clear all data from handsets received, but please remove your SIM card. We can not be held responsible for phones received without the permission of the owner. Once phones have been deposited for this initiative, they can not be returned.
